About the event

NICS Live 2020

Building on the success of previous events, NICS Live Belfast brings together over 2,700 delegates, eager to share, learn and network.

NICS Live is the biggest learning and development event in the NICS calendar. The packed programme showcases the diversity of work in the NICS and provides learning, development and networking opportunities for all staff. Delegates will be equipped with new insight to take back to their departmental teams. Personally, endorsed by the Head of the Civil Service, David Sterling, this exclusive event has attracted the most senior figures from across the public service. Speakers will include senior leaders and innovators from across the public sector.

NICS Live is delivered through a partnership with communications experts, Dods Group Plc [1].
